Collection, use, and sharing of student personal information

Schools and Districts are authorized to collect, use, and share student personal information that is directly related to and necessary for their educational functions. For other school or education-related purposes, parental or student consent is required. The School and the District are seeking your consent to collect, store, use and share photographs, videos, images, and/or names of students in a variety of publications and on the school or District's website(s) for education related purposes, such as recognizing and encouraging student learning and achievements, building the school community, and informing others about school and District programs and activities.

For example, student names, and/or images may be used or shared in:

- school and District communications, such as yearbooks newsletters, brochures, and reports in limited or public circulation;
- school and District websites, social media sites (e.g. Facebook), and online video (e.g. YouTube), with limited or public access;
- videos, CDs, and DVDs designed for educational use only.

Please check A, or B (only one)
